

For Immediate Release: Drug War Talk at Union College

- What:

The real human beings' lives that are destroyed in the name of the so called "War on Drugs" is often forgotten. Recent events including the CIA-Peruvian Air-force killing of a missionary and her daughter remind us of the people who truly suffer.

- The Event:

Aaron Wilson, a longtime drug policy reform activist, will kick off the speaking, followed by Warren Redlich, who will speak about the crimes against humanity committed in the name of the United States' drug policies. An open discussion will follow. The event is hosted by Union College's newly formed chapter of NORML (the National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws) and SSDP (Students for Sensible Drug Policy). All are invited and encouraged to attend.

- When:

Tuesday, May 22nd, at 7:00pm.

- Where:

Union College, Schenectady, New York, in the Reamer Campus Center Auditorium.

For more information, please contact:

Nelson Abramson, President of the Union College NORML/SSDP Chapter at:
518-388-6964 / norml@vu.union.edu, <http://www.vu.union.edu/~norml>